Refund of Service Tax

The Commissioner, Customs, Central Excise & Customs, Lucknow issued demand-cum-show cause notices to IGRUA and subsequently passed final order to deposit Service Tax on training fee effective from April, 2005. The Akademi appealed against this order with Appellate Tribunal, Customs, Central Excise & Service Tax, New Delhi and the case was decided in Akademi's favour.

Then Commissioner of Customs, Central Excise & Service Tax appealed with High Court of Lucknow. The High Court of Lucknow has dismissed the appeal on 20th January, 2014. The legal case has not yet reached its finality and there is a likelihood of the case moving to Supreme Court.

The Akademi is in process of filing claim for refund of Service Tax with the Service Tax department. Considering the above situation, it has been decided to take undertakings from the parents as well from the students also, who have paid or due to pay the Service Tax and refund the service tax on receipt of claim. All the trainees (present and passed out) are required to furnish the enclosed undertaking on non-judicial stamp papers of Rs.100/- each, duly attested by the Notary. It may be noted that the process of refund of Service Tax to trainees/ex-trainees will be initiated on receipt of undertakings.
